

A. Arivalalagan is presently working as an Assistant Professor at Sir Issac Newton Law College in Nagapattinam. He completed his Bachelor of Science in Chemistry from Sun Arts and Science College in Thiruvannamalai, Tamil Nadu, from 2015 to 2018. Subsequently, he studied his Bachelor of Law from Government Law College, Villupuram, between 2018 and 2021, and pursued his Master of Law at the same institution from 2021 to 2023, specializing in Family Law. He has practiced as an advocate at the Villupuram District Court for 4 years, focusing on family cases, domestic violence cases, and MCOP cases. His postgraduate research was centered on Family Law. His academic involvement includes participation in 2 national seminars, 1 international seminar, and 1 workshop. He has delivered a special lecture on fundamental rights and has attended 1 faculty development program. His teaching expertise encompasses Family Law, Constitutional Law, Torts, and Crimes, with a particular focus on Crimes and ongoing research in Family Law.