

Ms. Lavanya C.

Assistant Professor

Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University, Chennai

Professionals Summary:

I am a committed and motivated legal academician currently serving as an Assistant Professor at Sir Issac Newton law college. With a solid academic foundation in law, I have completed B.B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) from 2017 to 2022 and earned my LL.M. with a specialization in International Law and Organization in 2024.

I have a deep interest in legal education, international human rights, environmental law, and global legal institutions. Through both academic training and practical experiences, I have developed a well-rounded legal perspective and a passion for research and student mentorship.

Educational Qualifications:

* LL.M. – International Law and Organization Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University, Chennai
2022 – 2024

* B.B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University, Chennai
2017 – 2022

* High School Certificate of Merit Awarded Certificate of Merit for Best Academic Performance

Internship Experience:

Legal Intern – High Court of Madras Under Counsel Supriya April 2022 – May 2022.

During this one-month internship, I gained valuable exposure to court procedures and legal practice. Working closely under the guidance of Advocate Supriya, I developed a practical understanding of:

- * How to communicate effectively and professionally with clients
- * Techniques for case file analysis and identifying key legal issues
- * The preparation of case briefs and legal documentation
- * Observing courtroom proceedings and understanding the practical application of legal arguments

This internship strengthened my foundational legal skills and gave me insight into the realities of litigation and client handling.

Research & Dissertation:

Dissertation Title: "Understanding of Female Criminality Under International Law"

Explored the gendered dimensions of criminal behavior and the treatment of female offenders under various international legal frameworks.

Academic & Co-Curricular Activities:

- * Participated in the International Symposium on "Climate Change as a Social Reality: A Shift from Papers to Practice", as part of the 16th Pro Bono Enviro

National Moot Court Competition.

- * Participated in "Water Way Forward", a legal awareness event on water conservation and sustainability.

Skills:

- * Legal Research & Drafting
- * Client Communication
- * Case Analysis
- * Public Speaking & Legal Presentation
- * Teaching & Curriculum Development
- * Event Coordination and Student Engagement

Areas of Interest:

- * International Law
- * Environmental Law
- * Human Rights Law
- * Gender Justice
- * Legal Education and Policy
- * Constitutional law
- * Criminal law
- * Family law

Career Objective:

As a legal educator, I am dedicated to nurturing future legal professionals through innovative teaching, meaningful research, and real-world exposure. I aim to contribute to academic excellence while actively engaging in research in international law, gender studies, and environmental policy.