

Principal - (Sir Issac Newton Law College, Nagapattinam)

Dr. P. Angayarkanni Started her professional career as an Advocate in the year 1997 and also practiced for a period of about 8 years in the civil side. She has completed B.L in the year 1997 in the Central Law College, Salem and completed her M.L in the Annamalai University in the year May 2003. Her major specializations is Labour and Administrative Law. Irrespective of Law, Dr. P. Angayarkanni has successfully completed the Masters in Sociology from Manonmanian Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli. She has also completed the Post Graduate Diploma in French Law from Pondicherry University. She acquired the qualification of NET (National Eligibility Test For Lectureship) in the year November 2011. Dr. P. Angayarkanni has completed her Doctoral Degree (Ph.D. In Labor Law) in Pondicherry University in the year May 2013. She has a vast teaching experience of about 18 years in the cadre of Assistant Professor, Associate Professor in various esteemed institutions. She has been a Guide for Ph.d. Scholars in both SRM School of Law and Saveetha School of Law at Chennai. She also served as a Principal, in G.T.N Law College, Dindigul for an Academic Year. Dr. P. Angayarkanni has also organized various webinars, seminars and International Conferences. She has also conducted rally in Court Campus, Dindigul creating Legal Awareness to the General Public. She published a book titled “Minimum Wage Law in India – A Study with Special Reference to Unorganized Sector in Pondicherry”. She has published various Articles in Peer – reviewed Journals, Scopus and attended various seminars and webinars as a participant and Resource Person. She has been a Chief – Superintendent in G.T.N. Law College, Dindigul.

