

Dr. S. Srinivasan has an impressive academic background, having earned his M.A., M. Phil, and PhD in Economics from Annamalai University in Chidambaram, Tamilnadu. In 2018, he successfully completed the SET examination at Mother Teresa University in Kodaikanal. With 13 years of experience in the field, He has worked as both an Assistant Professor and Associate Professor in Economics in Ethiopia. He has also worked as a Guest Faculty member at The Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Government University in Chennai for one year and in addition to his teaching roles, he served as the Head of Research and Quality Assurance in Papua New Guinea for another year. His academic contributions are noteworthy, including the publication of 4 books, 19 research articles, and 5 monographs, along with participation as a resource person in 6 seminars. Furthermore, he has attended 35 webinars and is skilled in using SPSS and STATA for statistical analysis.